One Tiny Turtle Post-Reading Activities and Extensions Since Scholastic gave us a class set of One Tiny Turtle books, I had each student make a word bank in the back of their book. They taped an envelope to the back page and put word cards in it, which they used to match with the print when rereading.

Adventures With Books: One Tiny Turtle by Nicola Davies ...

The students also got to make their own tiny turtles. I drew a turtle shape for them to cut out. We went on a rock hunt outside to find just the right rocks for the turtle shells. Students then got to design and paint their shells. One turtle has a bottle cap for the shell. But we liked the way the rocks turned out better.
